Local and Regional Housing Authorities (LHAs)

A housing authority set up by a city or town, or group of towns, in accordance with state law to provide low-income family or elderly housing and in some cases rental assistance.

State-Aided Public Housing:

Low-income households are typically eligible for the state-aided public housing if they earn no more than 80 percent of the area median income.

If you or a family member are 60 years of age or over, or non-elderly/handicapped you may qualify for the elderly/handicapped housing program.
